The tablature shows six strings, with the 6th string at the bottom. Fret numbers 0, 2, and 3 are indicated above the strings. Measure numbers 1 through 12 are positioned above the staff. Measures 1-4 and 5-8 are identical. Measures 9-12 show a different pattern, starting with a G chord followed by a 12th position barre chord.

The diagram illustrates a guitar scale pattern starting at the 3rd fret of the 6th string (C) and ending at the 2nd fret of the 1st string (G). The strings are numbered 6 through 1 from left to right. The scale consists of the following notes: 3 (6th string), 2 (5th string), 5 (4th string), 7 (3rd string), 7 (2nd string), 7 (1st string), 7 (1st string), 5 (2nd string), 2 (3rd string), 0 (4th string), -3 (5th string), 2 (6th string), 2 (5th string), 2 (4th string), 2 (3rd string), 2 (2nd string), 2 (1st string). The 5th and 2nd strings are muted. The 3rd string has a downward arrow below it. The 1st string has an upward arrow above it.

Fretboard diagram for a G major chord on a 6-string guitar. The strings are numbered 1 (thinnest) to 6 (thickest). The diagram shows the finger placement: the 1st string is muted (0), the 2nd string is muted (0), the 3rd string is muted (0), the 4th string is muted (0), the 5th string is muted (0), and the 6th string is muted (0). The frets are labeled 5, 7, 5, and 2 from left to right.

A diagram of a guitar string with a fretboard below it. The string has a red dot at the 3rd fret. Above the string, there are two diagrams of a guitar neck. The first diagram shows a D chord (two dots on the 2nd fret, one dot on the 3rd fret). The second diagram shows an E chord (one dot on the 2nd fret, one dot on the 3rd fret). Below the string, there are four downward-pointing arrows labeled with the letter V.

A diagram of a guitar neck with six strings. The 2nd string has a vertical bar above it at the 0th fret. The 3rd string has a vertical bar above it at the 3rd fret. A curved brace starts from the 3rd string at the 3rd fret and goes down towards the 2nd string.
